The True Issue.

It is the duty of every citizen to vote for the man who will preserve the Union and the rights of the people.

The Democrat has taken up the key note of a dissolution of the Union set by the Chicago Herald and Times for its humble initiators.

Our neighbors feel quite bad, very bad, inexpressibly bad. In fact the dying throes of the democratic party could not be more distressing than the affliction of our friends over the way.

The picture of the wrongs inflicted upon the South by the people of the North is mournful or terrific, just as sympathy or indignation is the predominating sentiment.

"Mason and Dixon's line has been run straight through the church of God, and divided brothers at the holy communion table, and suspended the sword between the pulpit and the people."

[was that the touch of "the Bishop?"] the supplicant cry of the South is for peace, and the aggressive North won't give any peace, and anarchy and bloody revolution stares the country in the face; invective, insult, wrong and injury, has been long waged upon the South, until they have got to be systemized and remorseless "crusades," [equal perhaps to Peter the Hermit's], or the Lion-Hearted King of the old Brits; or the North, when it emancipated its slaves, sold the dark-skinned to the South, and now curses the purchasers for holding them in ease and almost affluence; the South would cheerfully sell back their chattels if the North would only buy, but the North would trade back; in short, the Southerners are a wretched and perverse, abused people, and they, "chivalrous and honorable," won't submit to insult, abuse and injury any longer.

Such is the wail of the Democrat; the agony is piled up in a style that Atwater or Meeker might envy. Seriously, is not that paper ashamed of such balderdash? What does it expect to gain by writing and printing such stuff? Does it suppose the people of Wisconsin will do anything else than laugh at its frantic efforts to play the tragic, efforts which simmer down into a very inferior quality of bombast? It had better prepare itself to meet with decency and decorum the inevitable defeat which awaits its party instead of setting up a pumpkin lantern that the most idiotic southern "nigger" would hoot at as a failure to terrify.

MEETING AT OXFORD.—Last night Messrs. A. C. Bates and H. N. Comstock addressed a meeting of republicans at Oxford Station.

LOOK TO THE LEGISLATURE.

We hope no republican will be indifferent to the success of the senatorial and assembly candidates. A strenuous effort will be made by the democrats of Wisconsin to secure the next legislature. The plan is to take advantage of any disaffection among republicans, if disaffection exists anywhere, and slip in one of their own party, under the pretence that a republican ascendancy is sure, and one vote is of no consequence, and dispute fiercely every doubtful district. The prize to be gained, if it can be gained, of electing a U. S. Senator and obtaining the control of the districting of the state, is so valuable that every thing else will be sacrificed to it. Reject, therefore, with indignation, every effort to detach you from a republican candidate, or any proffer to trade off. No conceivable consideration should induce a republican to vote for a democrat to go to the legislature.

The election of a republican legislature is quite as important to Wisconsin as a republican president to the Union. In the uncertainty which always attends the choice of a legislature in this state, where so many local considerations and local differences exist, ONE MEMBER may give that body its political complexion. Remember the difficulty attending the election of Senator Durkee. With what heart sorrow would the election of a pro-slavery democrat to the U. S. senate from Wisconsin, one of the earliest apostles of republicanism, be received throughout the state and by every lover of liberty in the Union. The only safe course is to vote for republican candidates, and make the right result sure. A safe majority is much better than a small minority. Republicans of Rock county, don't suffer your noble county to lose caste among her republican associates. To avoid this evil consequence, each republican, for himself, should support cheerfully and heartily the candidates of his party.

"Up, LINCOLN BOYS, and at 'em."

Shoppers.

EDITORS GAZETTE.—I had the pleasure last Tuesday evening of attending a political discussion at Shopiere. The great questions at issue, which are agitating the public mind, were very ably discussed by J. B. Cassoday of this city, and Hon. Wm. S. Rockwell of Beloit. By agreement, Mr. C. opened the discussion in a speech of one hour; Mr. R. following in a speech of one hour, and each gentleman replying in a speech of half an hour; Mr. R. having the close.

Mr. Rockwell is a gentleman, and a lawyer of ability, and if he had been enlisted in a better cause, I think he could have made a good political speech; but as it was, he labored under the difficulties of an unlooked for strong opponent and a conscientious wrong cause. The truth is, the humbug of "popular sovereignty" is "played out," and the people know it, and Mr. R. seemed to be fully aware of the fact.

Mr. Cassoday made an able speech in defence of the republican principles, and in showing the false position of the Douglas democracy. Mr. R. got a deal more than he bargained for, and found in Mr. Cassoday an opponent who utterly routed and discomfited him. Mr. Cassoday, who is one of the most promising young men in the county, was in excellent trim and, aided by a good cause and the right side of the question, achieved an evident triumph for himself and his cause. I have seldom witnessed a more evident discomfiture than Mr. Rockwell suffered. The effect of the meeting upon the audience was unmistakable.

The republicans of Shopiere are all right, and are going to vote the straight ticket.

Our democratic cotemporary over the river affects to believe that the ordinance of 1787 did not, after all that has been said about it, prohibit slavery from the territories.

The Wisconsin democratic state convention of 1849, which passed the following resolution, thought differently: Resolved, That we believe it to be the duty of congress to incorporate the provisions of the ordinance of 1787, prohibiting slavery or involuntary servitude, into all territorial organic acts hereafter to be passed, and to oppose the admission into the Union of any new slave states.

The democracy of that day were sound; but since that time they must have slightly changed their views. See the Wickliffe resolution of the Baltimore platform—"Principles changed, but men never," according to Douglasism.

What is our deluded neighbor over the river, driving at? One day he charges fiercely upon Lincoln and Hamlin for not voting for the extension of the Missouri compromise line; the next day he quotes approvingly Jefferson's opinion against the compromise. That is hardly consistent.

This is a wet day, and a cold wind is blowing from the east. It reminds us of the storm condition of the Douglas party in the north. The only chance for them to get in "out of the wet," is to enter the republican tent, where everything is warm and cheerful. Boys, don't stand out there shivering and chattering your teeth, vainly hoping that "something may turn up" to save you. There is room yet in old Abe's quarters.

While the lamp holds out its turn, The voter must not turn.

The lamp referred to is a Wide Awake torch.

How to TELL FRESH EGGS.—Make a solution of chloride of sodium (common salt) of a specific gravity represented by 1.040 (water being 1.000). If an egg, thrown into this solution, sinks to the bottom, it is fresh enough to be boiled in the shell; if it does not sink quite to the bottom, it is still fit to be eaten, but not under that form, and if it swims on the surface, it is decidedly spoiled.

We can give a far more intelligible rule than this: Break the shell and put your nose to the egg.

POSTMASTER AT ALTON REMOVED.—Dr. R. W. English has been removed from the office of postmaster at Alton, Ill., he being a heavy defaulter to the government, which appears to be quite fashionable among democratic officials, about these days. Wm. Allen Bryan, of Virginia, has been sent to Alton to take charge of the post-office, and act as temporary postmaster.

THE CHIVALRY.

The Democrat pays a glowing tribute to the "chivalry" of the south. Its laudation of everything southern, and especially everything relating to the "divine institution" of slavery, leads us to wonder that it does not remove itself bodily to that region where its sympathies and tastes would be gratified by a daily association with that "chivalrous, honorable people."

Let us note a few of the acts of this "honorable people" which entitles them to the title of "chivalry": A few days since they hung a WOMAN in Texas, because she was from the north. They had warned a Mr. Foster and his family to leave that state, and while on their way, Mrs. Foster and Dr. Shreeves, were overtaken and both hung. They were from Fairview, Illinois. The Doctor was a Douglas democrat.

They kept Miss Delia Webster many years in the Kentucky state prison for the crime of teaching a slave to read. On the 13th of September last, the "chivalry" of Texas hung Rev. Anthony Bewley, because he was a Methodist. The Texas Christian Advocate says "he was hung on the same limb of the tree on which Mr. Crawford had been hung before."

"The same pro slavery mob are looking for the Rev. Mr. Willet, son-in-law of Mr. Bewley, to hang him on the same tree. On the 16th of January last they drove Frederick Amthor, a German, out of Texas, threatening him with assassination. In his statement he says they whipped to death a man named Evans, at Henderson, Texas. He saw the body of Evans, which had not been buried, and the hogs and buzzards were devouring it. These men were supposed of harboring thoughts adverse to slavery. Evans had no trial.

Hundreds of other instances of outrage and violence could be detailed which have occurred among this "chivalrous people" during the past year.

Our readers will not soon forget the murders, outrages and arson, which were committed by the "border ruffians" of Missouri, upon the unoffending people of Kansas—all because they were endeavoring to free a free state upon the strictest principles of popular sovereignty. In this war it was estimated, three hundred and sixty murders were committed by the "chivalrous, honorable" ruffians of Missouri. Many were women, several were children—old men, non-combatants, ministers of the gospel—all suffered at their hands.

It will be remembered that Foote threatened to hang John P. Hale, if he ever went to the state of Mississippi. Davis of Miss, declared in the senate, that Mr. Seward was a traitor, and deserved the gallows. Perry of Va., said they would hang the traitor Seward if he should be found in the borders of Virginia.

The outrage upon Mr. Sumner, in the senate chamber, where, the "chivalry," headed by Brooks and Keitt, with Douglas looking on, attempted assassination, is another instance of the conduct of this "honorable people." This act of ruffianism was sanctioned and applauded by almost the whole south.

Douglas has declared that Abraham Lincoln, our honored candidate for the presidency, dare not visit his birth place, because he is a republican.

Bayard Taylor, in a recent letter published by himself, alluding to the breaking off of a lecture engagement in Richmond, because had some time been a correspondent of the New York Tribune, said: "I have traveled in all the principal portions of the world; I know all forms of government and all religious creeds, from personal observation and study; but nowhere, in any of the lands or races most bitterly hostile to republicanism and christianity, have I ever been subjected to a narrower or more insulting censorship."

Volumes could not contain a detail of the atrocious outrages upon the rights and persons of white men, to say nothing of those against the slave, of which the "chivalry" have been guilty. The record of cold blooded murders committed, homes made desolate, families broken up and destroyed, frauds and perjuries at the ballot box, the denial of free speech, the destruction of a free press, the scourging of unoffending travelers, the ransacking of public mails, are all "proofs strong as holy writ," that the perpetrators are not a "chivalrous and honorable people."

We know that the people of the south are not all guilty of these acts; but a majority are, or they could not be done. Especially are the slaveholders responsible for them, who mould, direct and control public opinion at the south; and these are the very pinks of "chivalry," whom the Democrat so much admires.

CONTEMPT FOR THE GERMANS.—The Union & Democrat of La Crosse gives the following choice piece of nonsense: "A FIZZLE.—The great crowd who listened to the Infidel, God-hating Carl Schurz on the 24th, at Milwaukee, was about four hundred people in all. Schurz was beaten in this state by Lieut. Gov. Ho. E. D. Campbell of this city, and the only wonder why he was not beaten worse. At home the gifted Dutchman don't amount to much."

Carl Schurz has won a national reputation as an excellent orator, a scholar and a gentleman. For these qualities, and because he is a German republican, he is intensely hated by the sham democracy. Speaking of him they betray the real sentiments which they harbor against all foreigners who will not submit to be their tools, and who refuse to do their bidding.

NO FUSION IN INDIANA.—A meeting of the Indiana state central committee, the democratic (Douglas) electors, and a number of prominent democrats, was held at Indianapolis last Friday, at which the subject of a fusion of the anti-Lincoln elements in support of the Douglas electoral ticket was discussed. It was finally resolved that no fusion was practicable or available, and the state is certain to go for LINCOLN.

Hon. Jonathan Child, one of the oldest of the pioneer citizens of Rochester, N. Y., died on Sunday morning, aged 76 years.

PROCLAMATION.

It is right that all Christian nations should praise the Ruler of the Universe for His wonderful goodness to the children of men. It is eminently proper that the people of this country should praise Him, for they are favored above all others, in their form of government, devoted, under God, by the wisdom of their forefathers—in freedom to do all things that are right—in health, peace, prosperity, and a wonderful process of development which has already placed them in the foremost rank of the nations of the world.

The people of Wisconsin have extraordinary reasons for thankfulness the present year. The peaceful labors of the husbandmen have been blessed in a most remarkable degree, and their barns and storehouses are overflowing with the abundance of the harvest. Surely, "He finisheth them with the fruit of the wheat." Health has been extended throughout our borders. Good order has everywhere reigned. The blessings of free education have been extended. All classes and professions have pursued their avocations with greater or less measure of success, under the protection of just and equal laws. If afflictions have come upon, or calamities overtaken us, the benign influence of Christian benevolence has hastened to dry the tears and minister to the wants of the bereaved.

Following time-honored custom, it is my privilege again to invite the people of Wisconsin to the observance of their annual festival of joy and gladness, and I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 29th day of November, 1860, as a day of THANKSGIVING and praise to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe.

I and I recommend that the people of the state, on that day, laying aside all cares and labors, gather together in their several assemblies and in many and many a place, to give thanks to God for His great goodness to us as citizens of a country blessed, beyond others, with civil and religious liberty, educational institutions, peace and prosperity; and especially for His overflowing blessings to the people of this Commonwealth, in Abundant Harvests, Health, Social Comforts and Privileges, and for all that contribute to their happiness and well-being as communities and individuals.

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless His name." When the feast is spread, and the table groans with fattened, let not the poor be forgotten, nor any man found begging bread.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my (L. S.) name, and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed. Done at Madison, the 29th day of October, A. D. 1860, By the Governor, ALEX. W. RANDALL. HOWARD TILLEY, Asst. Sec'y of State.

TUNE—"The Marseilles."

Freemen awake! the songs of glory Are echoing 'neath our Northern skies, Our country's fame renowned in story How dearly, fondly do we prize! How dearly, fondly do we prize! Too long have slavery's minions sway'd us, Its hireling hosts with reckless hand Have sought to desolate our land! Too long our rulers have betrayed us! To arms, to arms, ye brave! The Patriot's faith is strong; March on, march on, all hearts resolved To overthrow the wrong!

Oh, Liberty! we'll not resign thee; No chains or fetters shall confine thee, Nor e'er thy noble spirit tame! No more shall freedom live howling In the hateful thrall that tyrants wield, For freemen tread the battle-field! And slavery's threats are unavailing—To arms, to arms, ye brave! The Patriot's faith is strong; March on, march on, all hearts resolved To overthrow the wrong! Chicago, October 16th, 1860.

OBSTRUCTIONS ON THE TRACK.—The Monroe Sentinel gives the particulars of an attempt to throw a train from the track and a narrow escape from such a calamity. On Friday last when the freight train which is due at this place at 10 A. M., was about one mile from town, and as it was coming upon the embankment which is high, near the farm of J. V. Richardson, the engineer discovered some obstruction upon the track but at first distant ahead. He immediately whistled down the brakes, and reversed the engine, and barely succeeded in stopping the train before it came upon a pile of stones which had been placed upon the rail. The fact that there is a heavy grade on that portion of the road, alone enabled the engineer to stop the train in time to prevent a serious loss of life and property. As soon as the train stopped the freeman jumped off and saw a boy running from the road towards the woods; he immediately pursued the boy, captured him and found that he was the culprit. They removed the obstruction, put the boy upon the train and brought him to town. He stated that he had no home, that his parents died years ago and that he had formerly lived at Mineral Point, Wisconsin, near the farm of J. V. Richardson, and that he had been sent to the city of Janesville, in the county of Rock, and state of Wisconsin, as a peon, to be sold to the highest bidder, on the 1st day of January, 1860, for the sum of $100.00. ## LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

For the Janesville Gazette.
Death of the Rev. Mr. Stansbury.

At a special communication of Janesville Lodge No. 55, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to call from his labor on earth our worthy brother, D. STANSBURY, who departed this life on the 23d day of October, 1860—aged 62 years:

Resolved, That in this dispensation of Divine Providence the fraternity has lost a worthy brother, the wife a kind and affectionate husband, the family a kind and loving father, and the community an upright and honorable citizen.

Resolved, That as members of this Lodge we offer our warmest sympathy to the bereaved family and friends of our deceased brother; and that in compliance with his special request, and in the discharge of the duty imposed by the consideration of brotherly love and esteem, we will now proceed in a body to pay the last tribute of respect to his memory, prescribed by the usages of our ancient and honorable order.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be furnished by the secretary, under seal of the Lodge, to the family of the deceased, and also to the editors of the papers of this city, with a request that they publish the same.

C. LOFTUS MARTIN, } Com.
JOHN CURTIS, }
Janesville, Oct. 31st, 1860.

FUNERAL OF ELDER STANSBURY.—The funeral of this faithful and beloved clergyman was attended from the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of the clergyman of the circuit over which the deceased elder had so recently presided. An impressive sermon was preached by the Rev. H. C. Tilton, his successor in district duties, and the body was buried with masonic honors, the burial service of that order being read by the master of Janesville lodge. A good mass has been summoned to a better home than earth.

CHRONICLES OF MILWAUKEE.—Mr. Wheeler, local editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel, is preparing a history of the city, its founders and first settlers. Such a narrative, accurately and fully written, will be one of not merely local but general interest. The early settlers of Milwaukee are known throughout the state, and incidents in their personal history will be received with all the zest of a social record. The city itself is a leading feature in the progress of the state, and a portrait of its prosperity will reflect the growth of all Badgerdom. Mr. Wheeler proposes to make his book nearly 300 pages and sell it for a dollar. We should think many of our citizens will desire it.

Look After Them.

Visit the doubtful, and the sick Douglas men. It is a work of mercy. The former will be easily persuaded to fall into the swelling ranks of republicanism; the latter may be a little stubborn but they have been doing a good work for us, in the hands of Providence, (blind instruments as they are,) for the destruction of the corrupt old democratic party. Tell them that the door will be open until Tuesday night, for their admission. After that it will be closed.

DISCUSSION AT SHOPPIER.—A correspondent furnishes us with a notice of the report of a discussion at Shoppiet, Tuesday evening, between Mr. J. B. Cassoday of this city and Mr. W. S. Rockwell, the democratic candidate for the assembly in the Beloit district. From other sources we learn that the triumph of Mr. Cassoday, in the debate, was apparent and complete. Mr. Rockwell will have poor success in inducing the republicans of that district to send him to the legislature to vote for a U. S. senator to send slavery into free territory and district the state for the legislature in such a manner as to tell against the free, liberty-loving sentiments of the people of Wisconsin, the free children of the glorious ordinance of 1787.

Special Notice.

A NEW AND VALUABLE IMPROVEMENT.—We have been shown one of Hutton's Patent Water Drawers, intended for drawing water from wells and cisterns. It is so arranged that the bucket empties itself simply by turning a crank, saving the trouble of lifting and emptying the bucket in a cold winter day. The wheel that holds the rope is something new and ingenious, is made of iron, will last a life time and so made that the rope will not slip. The drawer can be closed or left open as desired, simply by turning down the lid, thus preventing anything from falling and children from throwing things into the well, admitting sufficient air by the motion of the bucket to keep the water pure. A child can draw itself a drink if necessary. The great recommendation is its simplicity, durability and cheapness, being cheaper than any other good article of its kind. They are made with one bucket or two, as wanted, and will work in wells of any depth.

The owners of the patent for this state, Messrs. Hall & Hudson, are stopping at the American House for a few days, and are ready to supply orders for drawers. Some of our enterprising townsmen who want to be profitably employed this winter can do well to make them for sale, as they are coming into general use and afford a handsome profit. Young men who wish something to do profitably, can find good employment in taking them out amongst the farmers, where they can find ready sale.

This is a favorable point to manufacture and supply the surrounding counties from, as the demand, we are assured, is already good, with every prospect of a steady increase as they become more generally known.

There are other patents for water drawers, but this is the first premium at our State Fair and a diploma for the most simple and best at the Walworth County Fair over Wheeler's, which was competing. We can safely recommend it to those wanting anything for raising water.

Give the agents a call, and examine for yourselves.

For the Daily Gazette.
Matters in Johnston.

Now that the election of Mr. Lincoln to the presidency may be set down as a certainty, the attention of your readers may be turned to the discussion of home matters. The year 1860 may be set down as a marked one in the history of the north-west. Everywhere the most bountiful harvests have been gathered by the farmer—No state, in this respect, has been favored more than Wisconsin, no county more than Rock, no township more than Johnston. The effect of this is seen in the very gait of the farmers, in read in their faces, in heard in their conversation, is witnessed in their plans for the improvement of homes and condition. Like the rain, the good crops have blessed everything.

Our schools will feel the benefits. Other means of public improvement will receive an increased share of attention. The form of the creditor will not any more throw a dark shadow over the homes of our people. "The good time coming," of which we have sung in hope, often mixed with despair, has come at last. How cordially it is greeted, let the bright, hopeful faces of our farmers testify.

Many of our district schools are about to go into operation for the fall and winter. In most of them competent teachers have been secured. A fair degree of interest is felt in them by the people of the different districts. When fully under way, the writer will furnish for your paper a detailed description of each school in the town.

There is, at the "old town," a high school which is as yet thinly attended, owing to the busy season which keeps at home and at work the sons and daughters of the farmers. When this is past, a larger attendance is anticipated.

The religious wants of the people are well supplied. There are four organized churches in the town, with three houses of worship. At the old town is a congregational church, possessing a good house of worship, and a bell, whose tones reach far over the prairies to call the people to prayer and praise. There is a large congregation, a well-trained choir, and a flourishing Sabbath school.

At the Center is a neat church, with the services of religion every Sabbath. In the west part of the town is a Reformed Presbyterian church, which worships in a model edifice. Here is a stated minister and a large congregation. In the north part of the town is a Free-Will Baptist church, with the services of a minister. They worship at present in a commodious school house. Means are being taken to revive a temperance society which had a flourishing existence in the town last winter. This, in connection with a singing school and a lyceum, will afford profit, pleasure and instruction to old and young.

DOB.

[Now here is an example for somebody to follow in every town and village in our country. Write something for our paper about your locality. Your farms and workshops—or yourselves and homes; if you can think of nothing else. We will gladly publish communications of this kind. It is a model of terseness and brevity. Who will send us the next report from a neighborhood of what is being done there?—Eps. GAZETTE.

WARRANTED DRESS FOR SALE

Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. The exhibit shows conclusively of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ltd.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparalleled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assets now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phoenix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Bank County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freight in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

BURNING FLUID, ALCOHOL,

We hope no republican will be indifferent to the success of the senatorial and assembly candidates. A strenuous effort will be made by the democrats of Wisconsin to secure the next legislature. The plan is to take advantage of any dissatisfaction among republicans, if dissatisfaction exists anywhere, and slip in one of their own party, under the pretence that a republican ascendancy is sure, and one vote is of no consequence, and dispute fiercely every doubtful district. The prize to be gained, if it can be gained, of electing a U. S. Senator and obtaining the control of the districting of the state, is so valuable that every thing else will be sacrificed to it. Reject, therefore, with indignation, every effort to detach you from a republican candidate, or any proffer to trade off. No conceivable consideration should induce a republican to vote for a democrat to go to the legislature.

The election of a republican legislature is quite as important to Wisconsin as a republican president to the Union. In the uncertainty which always attends the choice of a legislature in this state, where so many local considerations and local differences exist, ONE MEMBER may give body its political complexion. Remember the difficulty attending the election of Senator Durkee. With what least sorrow would the election of a pro-slavery democrat to the U. S. senate from Wisconsin, one of the earliest apostles of republicanism, be received throughout the state and by every lover of liberty in the Union. The only safe course is to vote for republican candidates, and make the right result sure. A safe majority is much better than a small minority. Republicans of Rock county do not suffer your noble county to lose caste among her republican associates. To avoid this evil consequence, each republican, by himself, should support cheerfully and unhesitatingly the candidates of his party.

Shopiere.

EDITORS GAZETTE.—I had the pleasure last Tuesday evening, of attending a political discussion at Shopiere. The great questions at issue, which are agitating the public mind, were very ably discussed by W. B. Cassoday of this city, and Hon. J. M. Rockwell of Beloit. By agreement, Mr. C. opened the discussion in a speech of one hour; Mr. R. following in a speech of one hour, and each gentleman replying in a speech of half an hour, Mr. R. having the close.

Mr. Rockwell is a gentleman, and a lawyer of ability, and if he had been enlisted in a better cause, I think he could have made a good political speech; but as it was, he labored under the difficulties of an unlooked for strong opponent and a conscientious wrong cause. The truth is, the hubbub of “popular sovereignty” is “played out,” and the people know it, and Mr. R. seemed to be fully aware of the fact.

Mr. Cassoday made an able speech in defence of the republican principles, and in showing the false position of the Douglas democracy. Mr. R. got a deal more than he bargained for, and found in Mr. Cassoday an opponent who utterly routed and discomfited him. Mr. Cassoday, who is one of the most promising young men in the county, was in excellent trim, and aided by a good cause and the right side of the question, achieved an evident triumph for himself and his cause. I have seldom witnessed a more evident discomfiture than Mr. Rockwell suffered. The effect of the meeting upon the audience was unmistakable.

The republicans of Shopiere are all right, and are going to vote the straight ticket.

Our democratic contemporary over the river affects to believe that the ordinance of 1787 did not, after all that has been said about it, prohibit slavery from the territories. The Wisconsin democratic state convention of 1849, which passed the following resolution, thought differently:

Resolved, That we believe it to be the duty of congress to incorporate the provisions of the ordinance of 1787, prohibiting slavery or involuntary servitude, into all territorial organic acts hereafter to be passed, and to oppose the admission into the Union of any new slave states.

The democracy of that day were sound; but since that time they must have slightly changed their views. See the Wickliffe resolution of the Baltimore platform—“Principles change, but men never,” according to Douglasism.

What is our deluded neighbor over the river, driving at? One day he charges fiercely upon Lincoln and Hamlin for not voting for the extension of the Missouri compromise line; the next day he quotes approvingly Jefferson’s opinion against the compromise. That is hardly consistent.

This is a wet day, and a cold wind is blowing from the east. It reminds us of the storm condition of the Douglas slave in the north. The only chance for them to get in “out of the wet,” is to enter the republican tent, where everything is warm and cheerful. Boys, don’t stand out there shivering and chattering your teeth, vainly hoping that “something may turn up” to save you. There is room yet in old Abe’s quarters.

How TO TELL FRESH EGGS.—Make a solution of chloride of sodium (common salt) of a specific gravity represented by 1.040 (water being 1.000). If an egg thrown into this solution, sinks to the bottom, it is fresh enough to be boiled in the shell; if it does not sink quite to the bottom, it is still fit to be eaten, but not under that form, and if it swims on the surface, it is decidedly spoiled.

We can give a far more intelligible rule than this: Break the shell and put your nose to the egg.

POSTMASTER AT ALTON REMOVED.—Dr. R. W. English has been removed from the office of postmaster at Alton, Ill., he being a heavy debtor to the government, which appears to be quite a habit among democratic officials, about these days. Wm. Allen Bryan, of Virginia, has been sent to Alton to take charge of the post-office, and act as temporary postmaster.

The Democrat pays a glowing tribute to the “chivalry” of the south. Its laudation of everything southern, and especially everything relating to the “divine institution” of slavery, leads us to wonder that it does not remove itself bodily to that region where its sympathies and tastes would be gratified by a daily association with that “chivalrous, honorable people.”

Let us note a few of the acts of this “honorable people” which entitles them to the title of “the Chivalry”:

A few days since they hung a WOMAN in Texas, because she was from the north. They had warned a Mr. Foster and his family to leave that state, and while on their way, Mrs. Foster and Dr. Shreeves, were overtaken and both hung. They were from Fairview, Illinois. The Doctor was a Douglas democrat.

They kept Miss Della Webster many years in the Kentucky state prison for the crime of teaching a slave to read.

On the 18th of September last, the “chivalry” of Texas hung Rev. Anthony Bewley, because he was a Methodist. The Texas Christian Advocate says “he was hung on the same limb of the tree on which Mr. Crawford had been hung before.”

The same pro-slavery mob are looking for the Rev. Mr. Willett, son-in-law of Mr. Bewley, to hang him on the same tree.

On the 10th of January last they drove Frederick Amthor, a German, out of Texas, threatening him with assassination. In his statement he says they whipped to death a man named Evans, at Henderson, Texas. He saw the body of Evans, which had not been buried, and the hogs and buzzards were devouring it. These men were suspected of harboring thoughts adverse to slavery. Evans had no trial.

Hundreds of other instances of outrage and violence could be detailed which have occurred among this “chivalrous people” during the past year.

Our readers will not soon forget the murders, outrages and arson, which were committed by the “border ruffians” of Missouri, upon the unoffending people of Kansas—all because they were endeavoring to found a free state upon the strictest principles of popular sovereignty. In this war it was estimated, three hundred and thirty murders were committed by the “chivalrous, honorable” ruffians of Missouri. Many were women, several were children—old men, non-combatants, ministers of the gospel—all suffered at their hands.

It will be remembered that Foote threatened to hang John P. Hale, if he ever went to the state of Mississippi.

David of Miss, declared in the senate, that Mr. Seward was a traitor, and deserved the gallows. Perry of Va., said they would hang the traitor Seward if he should be found in the borders of Virginia.

The outrage upon Mr. Sumner, in the senate chamber, where the “chivalry,” headed by Brooks and Keitt, with Douglas looking on, attempted assassination, is another instance of the conduct of this “honorable people.” This act of ruffianism was sanctioned and applauded by almost the whole south.

Douglas has declared that Abraham Lincoln, our honored candidate for the presidency, dare not visit his birth place, because he is a republican.

Bayard Taylor, in a recent letter published by himself, alluding to the breaking off of a lecture engagement in Richmond, because had some time been a correspondent of the New York Tribune, said:

“I have traveled in all the principal portions of the world; I know all forms of government and all religious creeds, from personal observation and study; but nowhere, in any of the lands or races most bitterly hostile to republicanism and Christianity, have I ever been subjected to a narrower or more insulting censorship.”

Volumes could not contain a detail of the atrocious outrages upon the rights and persons of white men, to say nothing of those against the slave, of which the “chivalry” have been guilty. The record of cold blooded murders committed, homes made desolate, families broken up and destroyed, brands and perjuries at the ballot box, the denial of free speech, the destruction of a free press, the scourging of unoffending travelers, the ransacking of public mails, are all “proofs strong as holy writ,” that the perpetrators are not a “chivalrous and honorable people.”

We know that the people of the south are not all guilty of these acts; but a majority are, or they could not be done. Especially are the slaveholders responsible for them, who mould, direct and control public opinion at the south; and these are the very pinks of “chivalry,” whom the Democrat so much admires.

CONTENT FOR THE GERMANS.—The Union & Democrat of La Crosse gives the following choice piece of nonsense:

A FIZZLE.—The great crowd who listened to the Infidel, God-hating Carl Schurz on the 24th, at Milwaukee, was about four hundred people only. Schurz was beaten in this state for Lieut. Gov. by Hon. E. D. Campbell of this city, and the only wonder was he was not beaten worse. At home the gifted Dutchman don’t amount to much!

Carl Schurz has won a national reputation as an excellent orator, a scholar and a gentleman. For these qualities, and because he is a German republican, he is intensely hated by the sham democracy. Speaking of him they betray the real sentiments which they harbor against all foreigners who will not submit to be their tools, and who refuse to do their bidding.

NO FUSION IN INDIANA.—A meeting of the Indiana state central committee, the democratic (Douglas) electors, and a number of prominent democrats, was held at Indianapolis last Friday, at which the subject of a fusion of the anti-Lincoln elements in support of the Douglas electoral ticket was discussed. It was finally resolved that no fusion was practicable or available, and the state is certain to go for LINCOLN.

Hon. Jonathan Child, one of the oldest of the pioneer citizens of Rochester, N. Y., died on Sunday morning, aged 76 years.

It is right that all Christian nations should praise the Ruler of the Universe for His wonderful goodness to the human race. It is especially proper that the people of this country should praise Him, for they are favored above all others, in their form of government, devised, under God, by the wisdom of their forefathers—in freedom to all things that are right—in health, peace, prosperity—in a word, in the enjoyment of all the blessings which have been placed upon them in the foremost rank of the nations of the world.

The people of Wisconsin have extraordinary reasons for thankfulness the present year. The peaceful labors of the husbandmen have been blessed in a most remarkable degree, and their barns and storehouses are overflowing with the abundance of the harvest. Scarcely a household is without the necessities of life. Health has prevailed throughout our borders. Good order has everywhere reigned. The blessings of free education have been extended. All classes and professions have pursued their avocations with greater or less measure of success, under the protection of just and equal laws. If additions have come upon, or calamities overtaken the people, the influences of Christian benevolence have hastened to dry the tears and minister to the wants of the bereaved.

Following time-honored custom, it is my privilege again to invite the people of Wisconsin to the observance of their annual festival of joy and gladness, and to do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 24th day of November, 1860, as the day of Thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe.

And I recommend that the people of the state, on that day, laying aside the cares of life, gather together in their solemn assemblies, and in manner and form approved by their consciences, return their thanks to God for His great goodness to us as citizens of a country blessed, beyond others, with civil and religious liberty, educational institutions, peace and prosperity, and especially for His overflowing blessings to the people of this Commonwealth, in Abundant Harvests, Health, Social Comforts and Privileges, and for all that contribute to their happiness and well-being as communities and individuals.

When the feast is spread, and the table groans with viands, let not the poor be forgotten, nor any man found begging bread.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my [L. S.] name, and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed.

Done at Madison, the 29th day of October, A. D. 1860.

By the Governor, ALEX. W. HANDELL.

EDWARD TILLEY, Asst. Sec’y of State.

Republican Song.

TUNE—“The Marseilles.”

Freemen awake! the songs of glory
Are echoing ‘neath our Northern skies;
Our country’s fame renowned in story
How dearly, fondly do we prize!

How dearly, fondly do we prize!
Too long have slavery’s minions swayed us;
His hireling hosts with reckless hand
Have sought to drag our land!

Too long our rulers have betrayed us;
To arms, to arms, ye brave!
The Patriotic faith is strong;
March on, march on, all hearts resolved
To overthrow the wrong!

Oh, Liberty! we’ll not resign thee;
No chains or fetters shall confine thee,
Nor e’er thy noble spirit taint!
No more shall freedom fly bewailing
The hateful thrall that tyrants wield,
For freemen tread the battle-field!

And slavery’s threats are unavailing—
To arms, to arms, ye brave!
The Patriotic faith is strong;
March on, march on, all hearts resolved
To overthrow the wrong!

Chicago, October 15th, 1860.

OBSTRUCTIONS ON THE TRACK.—The Monroe Sentinel gives the particulars of an attempt to throw a train from the track and a narrow escape from such a calamity.

On Friday last when the freight train which is due at this place at 10 A. M., was about one mile from town, and as it was coming over the embankment, which is thirty feet high, near the farm of J. V. Richardson Esq., the engineer discovered some obstruction upon the track but a short distance ahead. He immediately whistled down the brakes, and reversed the engine, and barely succeeded in stopping the train before it came upon a pile of stones which had been piled upon the track.

It was a heavy grade on that portion of the road, already enabled the engineer to stop the train in time to prevent a serious loss of life and property. As soon as the train stopped the fireman jumped off and saw a boy running from the road towards the woods; he immediately pursued the boy, captured him and found that he was the culprit. They removed the obstruction, put the train upon its regular track, and the boy was taken to town.

He stated that he had no home, that his parents died years ago and that he had formerly resided at Mineral Point with a man named Coyle, and that since he left Coyle he had been wandering about from place to place and lived by begging. He also stated that he had been induced to place the obstruction upon the track by two boys who were with him, whose names he did not know, and who, as he says, they heard the whistle of the train ran to the woods and left him to complete the piling of the stones upon the rail as they had agreed upon. The only object that these boys had, in perpetrating this infamous piece of rascality, so far as can be ascertained from the boy now in custody, is that they wanted to see some fun. A complaint was made against the boy before A. J. Brundage Esq., who after examining the matter sent him to the House of Refuge at Waukesha for one year. The names of the other boys have not been ascertained as yet. Certain boys of this place however whose parents seem to be strangely oblivious of the fact that they are being educated for the state prison, were seen about town in company with this boy, and were taken to the commission of this diabolical act.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.—Last Wednesday, Mr. Charles Campbell, of this village, was attempting to fasten a young horse he had been driving, when the animal took fright and kicked him in the face. Fortunately he was not hurt, and was soon able to get on his feet, but he was, one of the cheek bones was fractured, and he was for some time unable to see. She is in a fair way of recovery, and will not be disfigured.—Albany (Wis.) Times.

DEADLY AFFRAY.—On Saturday evening, at the hotel in New Glarus, one Ranald Bay, a young man, struck Dr. Blumer over the head with a chair, smashing in his cheek bone, and inflicting a very ugly and dangerous wound. Dr. Blumer is lying in a very critical condition, but hopes are entertained of his recovery.—Cause, jealousy.—Albany (Wis.) Times.

THE LATEST SOUTHERN AGENCY.—Some of the disunion fanatics of the south have resolved to attempt to insure the success of the northern insurance companies more. So much the better for disunion companies.

An idiot at Salisbury, Germany, being very fearless, an experiment was made to test his courage, by setting him to watch a pretended corpse, but which was in fact a living person enveloped, and as unfortunately proved, confined in a shroud. As the supposed corpse began to move, the idiot told it to lie still, and being discovered, seized a hatchet and cut off his own head, and in spite of operation, the head of the hapless impostor, after which he calmly resumed his watching.

It is right that all Christian nations should praise the Ruler of the Universe for His wonderful goodness to the human race. It is especially proper that the people of this country should praise Him, for they are favored above all others, in their form of government, devised, under God, by the wisdom of their forefathers—in freedom to all things that are right—in health, peace, prosperity—in a word, in the enjoyment of all the blessings which have been placed upon them in the foremost rank of the nations of the world.

The people of Wisconsin have extraordinary reasons for thankfulness the present year. The peaceful labors of the husbandmen have been blessed in a most remarkable degree, and their barns and storehouses are overflowing with the abundance of the harvest. Scarcely a household is without the necessities of life. Health has prevailed throughout our borders. Good order has everywhere reigned. The blessings of free education have been extended. All classes and professions have pursued their avocations with greater or less measure of success, under the protection of just and equal laws. If additions have come upon, or calamities overtaken the people, the influences of Christian benevolence have hastened to dry the tears and minister to the wants of the bereaved.

Following time-honored custom, it is my privilege again to invite the people of Wisconsin to the observance of their annual festival of joy and gladness, and to do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 24th day of November, 1860, as the day of Thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe.

And I recommend that the people of the state, on that day, laying aside the cares of life, gather together in their solemn assemblies, and in manner and form approved by their consciences, return their thanks to God for His great goodness to us as citizens of a country blessed, beyond others, with civil and religious liberty, educational institutions, peace and prosperity, and especially for His overflowing blessings to the people of this Commonwealth, in Abundant Harvests, Health, Social Comforts and Privileges, and for all that contribute to their happiness and well-being as communities and individuals.

When the feast is spread, and the table groans with viands, let not the poor be forgotten, nor any man found begging bread.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my [L. S.] name, and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed.

Done at Madison, the 29th day of October, A. D. 1860.

By the Governor, ALEX. W. HANDELL.

EDWARD TILLEY, Asst. Sec’y of State.

Republican Song.

TUNE—“The Marseilles.”

Freemen awake! the songs of glory
Are echoing ‘neath our Northern skies;
Our country’s fame renowned in story
How dearly, fondly do we prize!

How dearly, fondly do we prize!
Too long have slavery’s minions swayed us;
His hireling hosts with reckless hand
Have sought to drag our land!

Too long our rulers have betrayed us;
To arms, to arms, ye brave!
The Patriotic faith is strong;
March on, march on, all hearts resolved
To overthrow the wrong!

Oh, Liberty! we’ll not resign thee;
No chains or fetters shall confine thee,
Nor e’er thy noble spirit taint!
No more shall freedom fly bewailing
The hateful thrall that tyrants wield,
For freemen tread the battle-field!

And slavery’s threats are unavailing—
To arms, to arms, ye brave!
The Patriotic faith is strong;
March on, march on, all hearts resolved
To overthrow the wrong!

Chicago, October 15th, 1860.

OBSTRUCTIONS ON THE TRACK.—The Monroe Sentinel gives the particulars of an attempt to throw a train from the track and a narrow escape from such a calamity.

On Friday last when the freight train which is due at this place at 10 A. M., was about one mile from town, and as it was coming over the embankment, which is thirty feet high, near the farm of J. V. Richardson Esq., the engineer discovered some obstruction upon the track but a short distance ahead. He immediately whistled down the brakes, and reversed the engine, and barely succeeded in stopping the train before it came upon a pile of stones which had been piled upon the track.

It was a heavy grade on that portion of the road, already enabled the engineer to stop the train in time to prevent a serious loss of life and property. As soon as the train stopped the fireman jumped off and saw a boy running from the road towards the woods; he immediately pursued the boy, captured him and found that he was the culprit. They removed the obstruction, put the train upon its regular track, and the boy was taken to town.

He stated that he had no home, that his parents died years ago and that he had formerly resided at Mineral Point with a man named Coyle, and that since he left Coyle he had been wandering about from place to place and lived by begging. He also stated that he had been induced to place the obstruction upon the track by two boys who were with him, whose names he did not know, and who, as he says, they heard the whistle of the train ran to the woods and left him to complete the piling of the stones upon the rail as they had agreed upon. The only object that these boys had, in perpetrating this infamous piece of rascality, so far as can be ascertained from the boy now in custody, is that they wanted to see some fun. A complaint was made against the boy before A. J. Brundage Esq., who after examining the matter sent him to the House of Refuge at Waukesha for one year. The names of the other boys have not been ascertained as yet. Certain boys of this place however whose parents seem to be strangely oblivious of the fact that they are being educated for the state prison, were seen about town in company with this boy, and were taken to the commission of this diabolical act.
